Dear Sir,
On August 2 my wife and I had the exciting experience of visiting Camp Drum and finding the old Quaker Hill cemetery on the corner of Memorial Drive and Fourth St. It is here that I found the graves of my direct line ancestors: Joseph Child, unmarked sites (d. 2/24/1829) and his family as well as Samuel, his son (d. 12/18/1862) for whom a well preserved stone still stands. In addition addition there are numerous other family relatives there.

As you may know Joseph Child, my great³ grandfather, came from Plumstead, PA in 1803 to buy land from Count LeRay de Chaumont and to settle the area formerly known as LeRayville. It was Joseph who gave the land for the cemetery.

As a result of my genealogical searches I have pretty good data on Joseph and his line direct to me and going back from Joseph whose great grandfather, Henry, came to the new world in 1683 from England buying land from William Penn. I run into a blank with William Child (born 1572) of Amersham, England, a brewer and Henry's grandfather, eleven generations back from me.

If any of this is of any interest to you I'd be glad to supply details for your files.

Most importantly I'd like to commend and thank you for the careful care of the cemetery. It was most gratifying to find it so well taken care of and preserved.

Incidentally in our searches at Camp Drum we first visited the LeRay mansion and got to talk to Brig. General Partner, resident of the LeRay mansion's caretakers cottage adjacent. General Partner was most interested in the old history of the area and provided me with your departmental designation and the leads which enabled me to find the Quaker Hill cemetery.

Again my grateful Thanks.

Respectfully yours,

Ralph G. Child
